

NOTICE OF NONDISCRIMINATION AND ACCESSIBILITY

Discrimination is Against the Law: UW Medicine complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin (including limited English proficiency and primary language), age, disability, or sex (including sex characteristics, including intersex traits; pregnancy or related conditions; sexual orientation; gender identity, and sex stereotypes). UW Medicine does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

UW Medicine provides:

- Reasonable modifications and free auxiliary aids and services to people with disabilities to help communicate effectively with us, such as: (a) qualified interpreters for individuals with disabilities and (b) information in alternate formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats).
- Free language assistance services, including electronic and written translated documents and oral interpretation, to people whose primary language is not English, such as: (a) qualified interpreters; and (b) information written in other languages.

If you need any of the above services, please contact Patient Relations. At Harborview Medical Center the number is (206) 744-5000. At UW Medical Center the number is (206) 598-8382. If you are deaf or hard of hearing dial 7-1-1 for Telecommunications Relay Services.

If you believe that UW Medicine has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with:
